

Corresponding measures taken to address risks or opportunities in the community and their implementation results

The company actively participates in activities in its local industrial parks and local areas. The company adheres to the concept of operating locally and giving back to the society, and invests resources in or through donations (money) and other public welfare activities. To promote community development and enhance community identity and social responsibility.

The company will actively participate in and promote community development activities and social welfare in 2023. The activities are as follows:

● Community Care and Social Welfare

Type	Content
Community Care	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To sponsor the establishment of local industrial parks and repair the community's "Goddess of Wealth". ● In response to the Red Cross blood donation event in Zhonghe District, New Taipei City. 6 people participated in the charity event. To promote the culture of blood donation and provide support to those in need. ● The company actively participated in the Zhonghe District Industrial Park Management Committee 12 times. In order to promote the maintenance of sidewalk floor tiles, awnings, street lights, etc. and the disinfection of the regional environment in the industrial park. ● In order to actively maintain the environment and public safety of the Zhonghe District Industrial Park and promote local development.
Social Welfare	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Sponsor arts and cultural activities ● Respond to the activities of Eden Social Welfare Foundation ° ● Sponsor nutritious lunches for disadvantaged children

● Donations and event responses

In line with the spirit of "taking from the society, giving back to the society", the company will continue to care for children from disadvantaged families, respond to and encourage different disadvantaged groups such as those with physical and mental disabilities in arts and cultural development, and support and actively participate in and give back.

Object	Content	Sponsorship Amount
AAEON Foundation	Respond to the development and support of the arts and cultural industry. Sponsor the rotating exhibition activities of Zhonghe District Enterprise Art Corridor (Number of visitors to the exhibition - 150 people/year) °	NT$345,100

EDEN Social Welfare Foundation	Support and respond to the public welfare of the Eden Social Welfare Foundation in Songshan District, Taipei City. Provide local employment opportunities for disadvantaged groups and care for disadvantaged groups. (Number of people helped - 48 people/year) °
Red Heart Association	Donate to support the Red Heart Sunflower Charity in Taipei City's Zhongzheng District to provide nutritional meals for disadvantaged children. Provide assistance to disadvantaged children. Every year, we assist disadvantaged families in various regions across Taiwan to solve the problem of three meals a day, and also provide assistance to disadvantaged children with basic needs such as housing, medical care, and schooling. (The number of children receiving assistance - 60 people/ year) °	